Dear Mr. Eiss,

A Protestant is an individual objecting on the ground of private or public interest to the approval of an Application, Petition, Motion or other matters which the Commission may have under consideration. A Protestant may offer sworn testimony but cannot cross-examine witnesses offered by other parties.

According to the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, filing a Protest does not make you a Party of Record. A Protestant desiring to become an Intervenor (i.e., a Party of Record) in a proceeding before the Commission may file a Petition for Intervention within the time prescribed by the Commission.

Subject: Duke energy rate increase

I am writing to request a "NO" on Duke Energy's proposed rate increase. Duke energy is already making plenty of money in their monopoly of the service they provide. Their CEO got a 50+% pay increase and the company's profits were high. All while the people trying to pay their bill aren't getting pay increases to match the increased cost of living. Their greed fueled request to increase the cost to common people is unreasonable, especially after such a recent increase of so much.

Thank you so much for your time in reading this and hope the many pleas of no from the residents of South Carolina is heard and truly considered when decision time comes.
